GAELFORCE
GREAT LAKE SWIM

LOUGH DERG

How To Get Here

The village of Mountshannon is located on the shores of Lough Derg, in east Co. Clare. It is a 2-hour 30-minute drive from Dublin and easily accessed from many other parts of the country. As public transport is very limited, we recommend that you use your own transport.

Event Base

Mountshannon Sea Eagles Harbour, Lough Derg, Co. Clare, V94 29P8.

Find it on Google Maps to get directions and travel information from your location.

Car Sharing

We recommend that competitors car share where possible. Why not team up with other people travelling to the event? Post on our Facebook Event page to find other people going the same way.

Public Transport

Public transport is very limited but Bus Eireann Service no. 346 from Limerick stops in Mountshannon. Please note that buses to Mountshannon may not run every day. Check the timetable before you travel. See details below.

Getting To Mountshannon From Further Afield

Flying into Dublin: Dublin International Airport is 200kms from Mountshannon. You have a few options to get to Mountshannon:

Car Rental

The drive from Dublin Airport is about 2 hours 40 mins.

Bus

Take a bus from the airport (or the train from Heuston Station) to Limerick. In Limerick, take Bus Eireann No. 345 from Arthur's Quay to Tuamgraney. From there hop on Bus Eireann No. 346 to Mountshannon. The bus stops about 900m from the town centre. Total trip time is around 5 hours, but it may take a lot longer! Please note that buses to Mountshannon may not run every day. Check the timetables before you travel.

Ferry into Dublin Harbour

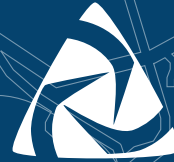

Dublin Port is around 145kms from Mountshannon. Drive time is approximately 2 hours 30 mins, on the motorway until Ballinasloe and then passing through some lovely towns on your way.

Flying into Shannon

Shannon Airport is around 60kms from Mountshannon and a 50 minute drive, winding through beautiful Irish countryside.
